

Evangelist Donna Robinson

Donna Lindsey Robinson of North Little Rock, AR has been an evangelist for more than 30 years and has been blessed to speak at many churches and venues from Women's Days to Music Events in several states and denominations across the continental United States and beyond. Her ministry is far-reaching and cross-cultural. Robinson has spent many years as a "go to" for ministries in need of support. She has consulted and acted as pastor to congregations. Her gift of speaking includes a very clear, "real" and concise message that comes straight from the Bible.

Evangelist Robinson is Supervisor-designee for the Rehoboth Sint Maarten Jurisdiction, District Missionary for the New Day District in the Arkansas Second Jurisdiction both under the leadership of Bishop Robert G. Rudolph who is both Bishop of Sint Maarten and Superintendent of New Day District in Arkansas Second Jurisdiction. Robinson is a member of The Worship Center Church of God in Christ in North Little Rock, AR under the leadership of Elder Lloyd Allen as Senior Pastor. She serves TWC in many capacities including the Advisory and Mother's Boards. She oversees the Women's Ministries and works in administration. She is a capable leader who gets things done.

Robinson is a magnet to young ladies who need a role model, she offers support and care for many. Her ministry in this area is extensive. Her ability to show the love of Christ by "any means necessary" makes her a Spiritual Mother that is much needed in this day and time. Her desire to provide Hope for the Hurting is very evident in her ministry style. Her personal ministry, Hope for the Hurting, lends itself to that mission. Outside of her local church, Robinson has served the International Church of God in Christ as a member of the General Assembly Committee on Standards and Extensions. Formerly served the Arkansas' Second Jurisdiction COGIC as the State Evangelism Department's Elect Lady. She also served 17 years as the Arkansas Second Jurisdiction COGIC's Minister of Music. She also served as the Metropolitan District Missionary. And is currently the Carlisle District's Evangelism president. Robinson also served as the Overseer of the Unity Church of God in Christ in Hot Springs, AR.

Evangelist Robinson is a graduate of Philander Smith College with Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology and has worked in social work in the protection of children and families. She is a graduate of Lee's School of Cosmetology and spent 18 years as the owner of New Attitude Salon in North Little Rock. Her other studies include courses at the University of Arkansas (Fayetteville) and Jackson Theological Seminary. Evangelist Donna Robinson is the eldest daughter of Bishop and Madame D.L. Lindsey. Her family is completed as the wife of Larry, and proud mother and grandmother.

Donna Robinson can be contacted at dlindsey_robinson@yahoo.com, rehobothmother@icloud.com or on Facebook and Instagram.